Yuma SAILA Junior Livestock Show

The Yuma SAILA Junior Livestock Show is to be held Saturday, January 23 and Sunday, January 24, 2021 at the Yuma County Fairgrounds.

- Using 2020 show attendance numbers: we actually had 343 exhibitors. About a fourth of those exhibitors showed multiple specie.
- 608 head of Beef, Goats and Lambs were exhibited.

This year we expect our numbers to be similar to last year. Our Yuma show is always well attended as our livestock families enjoy and appreciate our Yuma County Fairgrounds facilities and hospitality.

- Masks and social distancing is required for everyone.
- Four outside hand washing stations will be added.
- All exhibitors must check-in when they arrive. At that time temperature checks will be performed and the exhibitor and parents must sign and initial our SAILA Covid-19 Liability Release Waiver. Extra masks and hand sanitizers will be available to all.
- This year we will run a 2 day show in order to stay below the 25% maximum capacity. All activities are outside. Beef Cattle will show on Saturday and Goats and Lambs will show on Sunday thus spreading out the participates.
- Each showing has their own separate entrance and exit gates. All exhibitors and their livestock will exit before the next class enters the ring.
- The entrance gates are manned and COVID-19 mitigation practices are strictly enforced which include wearing of mask, social distancing, hand washing stations, and hand sanitations. The bleachers will be roped so that only every 3rd row will used for social distancing
- In between the Saturday and Sunday shows, the bleachers and show rings will be cleaned and sanitized.
- There will be no food or beverage service provided.
- Volunteers will also be making rounds throughout the grounds to ensure all exhibitors and families are adhering to the mitigation guidelines.

- Our Yuma SAILA show is a part of our International Jr Livestock show circuit. Since June, the SAILA organization has held five shows around the state and have been well attended. We are governed by our volunteer board and members of the Southern Arizona International Livestock Association. Therefore, the exhibitors and their families are used to following and adhering to the covid-19 guidelines. Fortunately, we have had no outbreaks of the virus. They work hard and are so grateful for these opportunities to show their animals that they work with every day.
